

Manager in Training

Position: Site Manager - Car Wash

Reports to: District Manager

Pay: $50k - $60k (DOE and completion of training program.)

We are looking for an individual with boundless energy and the ability to thrive in a fast-paced environment. You should enjoy working outdoors and be comfortable working as part of a large team. The ideal candidate should have great interpersonal skills, be solution-oriented, and have innovative approaches to solving complex challenges. We have a passion for providing a great member and team experience!

Successful applicants will demonstrate the following:

- Hands-on and practical experience supervising a team of more than 14 members
- Understanding of proper hospitality/member/customer service practices
- Understanding of written and performance-based training techniques
- Understanding of basic sales techniques/concepts

A plus, but NOT required:

- *Mechanical proficiency → basic hydraulics, basic plumbing, maintenance, and repair
- *Bilingual

Soapy Joe's offers:

- Excellent pay → $60k base + incentive after placement as a site manager
- Diverse, high-energy team members
- Opportunity for professional development and growth

Required:

- 3 years of management experience, or combination of training, school, and experience.π